PARENTAL COMMITMENT

We hereby invest authority in the school to discipline our child as necessary. We understand that we should discipline our child in the home according to scriptural principles. (Proverbs 13:24, 19:18, 22:6, 23:13-14, 29:15-17; Ephesians 6:12; Colossians 3:20; Hebrews 12:6) We will support the school discipline policies by upholding the standards thereto through home training.

If our child should become involved in any trouble at school or we disagree with any policy set by the school, we will in no case complain to any parent, but in the love of Christ and with prayer, we will register only necessary complaints with the teacher or administrator. Further appeal may be made to the School board. (Matthew 18 principle)

We agree to pay tuition according to arrangements that shall be made and to conclude all required payments on or before the last day of the school year. We understand that report cards will be withheld if required payments are not made in full on time.

Jefferson County Christian School's biblical role is to work in conjunction with the home to mold students to be Christlike. On occasion, the atmosphere or conduct within a particular home may be counter or in opposition to the biblical lifestyles the school teaches. This includes, but is not necessarily limited to, sexual immorality, homosexual orientation, or inability to support the moral principles of the school. Gal. 5:19-21; Rom. 1:24-32; Rom. 12:1,2 (Refer to Statement of Moral Integrity) In such cases, the school reserves the right, within its sole discretion, to refuse admission of an applicant or to discontinue enrollment of a student.

We have read the above commitment and want to have our child trained in accordance with them.
